

SECTION

21.0.0 Steel Construction

21.1.0 General

The working stresses, design, and construction of all steel construction shall conform to "Specifications for the Design, Fabrication and Erection of Structural Steel for Buildings" adopted by the American Institute of Steel Construction, 101 Park Avenue, New York, New York.

21.1.1 Painting of Structural Steel

All structural steel, shall receive a prime coat of paint at the factory, mill, or fabrication plant, and shall have a second and final coat of approved rust inhibitive metal paint applied after installation.

21.2.0 Gutters and Downspouts

All gutters, downspouts and flashing shall be of corrosion resistant metal or other permanent material intended for the application made.