

SECTION

36.0.0 Penalty for Violations.

Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this code, where no other penalty is provided, shall be fined as stated in Chapter 25, Section 25.224 of the Flossmoor Municipal Code for each offense. Every day such violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense; and any builder, contractor, or owner who shall construct any building in violation of the provisions of this code, and any superintendent, employee, or agent having control of such building construction, who shall willfully permit it to be so constructed, shall be liable for the penalties, and in addition thereto the builder, contractor, or owner who shall perform any construction in violation of this code shall be required to remove such improper construction at his, its, or their expense. (FMC-307, 7/17/95)
